Registration Link: <https://forms.gle/sLU9kDuZauAaTx4dA>

Details: This program is designed as a self-guided tour for K-12 learners. This program is free for students and chaperones. Standard-aligned resources and activity guides will enhance learning through exploring the Huntington's art, library and botanical collections. Below are three tours to explore during your visit:

The Shakespeare Tour

King Lear, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and The Merchant of Venice. Interested in Shakespeare? Check out this tour all about Shakespeare! Visit the gardens, the art galleries, and the Library Exhibition hall to explore objects related to Shakespeare and his plays.

The Sensory Tour

Touch, smell, listen, and look. Use your senses to explore The Huntington in this Sensory Tour. Touch the viewing stones in the Zen Court, smell the plants in the Herb Garden, listen to the pebble chimes in the Children's Garden, and look at the koi swimming in the Lily Ponds.

The Color Tour

Red, orange, yellow, blue, green, and purple. Explore all the colors of the rainbow in the Color Tour! How many colors can you discover in the art galleries, Library exhibition hall, and the gardens? See if you can count them all!
